

Help us break cycles of child abuse and neglect and earn your Wings by Skydiving to support National Wings Day!

Martin Corry MBE (former England Rugby captain)

Wanted! Courageous people to make sponsored parachute jumps to help protect vulnerable children.

Earn your Wings during a day of daring fun this summer. Take to the skies and skydive wherever you like and whenever you choose, then join us on National Wings Day this November to celebrate, receive your certificate, and maybe even win a trophy!

WAVE Trust's 'UK 70/30' objective is to reduce UK child abuse and neglect by 70% by 2030.

Teams of Lawyers, Accountants and Police Officers have already signed up!

Now we're looking for more teams from all professions to join with their colleagues and take on a thrilling skydive challenge whilst raising money to prevent the abuse and maltreatment of children

To earn your Wings contact Josh at WAVE now:
