

Anyone can be an Angel

'Help break the cycle of abuse and neglect at its source. Be an Angel and join me to support National Wings Day!'

Martin Corry MBE (former England Rugby captain)

WANTED! Angels ... to recruit teams of colleagues and friends to make sponsored parachute jumps across the country this summer.

Be a key part of National Wings Day in the late autumn for your help in moving us towards our target of reducing child abuse and neglect by 70% by 2030.

Be an Angel for Children.
Help reduce child abuse and neglect by 70% by 2030.

Angels can choose to take part in the actual jumps or not – their primary role is to recruit.

Contact us on Facebook, Twitter, by phone or by emailing Tim, to get all the information you need to make your team's jump a success.
